- Do I need to complete the “Background This is a mandatory section. If you answer “yes” to any of the questions you need to provide an explanation.

Information” section?

How do I sign the application form? If you are submitting an online application type your name in the signature section; for paper applications you must physically sign documents.

When I validated the form a series of red boxes appeared, what do I do? The red boxes indicate that you have either neglected to complete a field or the formatting of the answer is incorrect. Make the correction(s), validate again and save the document. Once the system confirms the application is okay a 6th page filled with bar codes will appear, this is part of your application and needs to be submitted.

Other frequently asked questions

What if my study permit expires while I am waiting for my PGWP? You have implied status <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/work-postgrad-who.asp> and continue to work IF it was stated on your study permit that you were eligible to work off-campus; please refer to “Waiting for a decision” section

Can I work once I complete my studies?

- ✓ You can work up to 20 hours/week if your study permit authorized you to work off-campus and you continued to meet the eligibility requirements <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/work-offcampus.asp>
- ✓ Once you receive your graduation documents and have submitted the PGWP application you work full-time.

How do I obtain a SIN number? Social insurance numbers are issued by Service Canada. Take your passport, study permit, work permit (if necessary) and confirmation of enrolment letter <https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/sin/before-applying.html>

What do I use for proof of a medical? If you underwent a medical by an IRCC affiliated doctor overseas upload your e-medical form if you have one or write a letter of explanation listing the date, city, country, doctor or clinic you went to. You can also call the IRCC Call Centre for other options to demonstrate proof.

Please note: if you have further questions: attend a PGWP permit workshop or contact an International Student Advisor.
